

"In Nivala, the entrepreneur's needs are responded to rapidly."

- TOMMI LÖYTYNOJA

Do you have an idea
for a success story?

We help you make it a reality!

When you bring your business to Nivala, the building permit will be provided to you by the Nivala town within one month, and it is possible to set up the business premises even in six months. Nivala town is strongly supportive of businesses in rapid decision making and flexible working procedures. Nivala is an entrepreneur friendly town with excellence in a range of fields: high technology research and development, hi-tech agriculture, strong cluster in the metal sector and of course, the industrial park. Team spirit between the companies inspires doing things together and thanks to good learning opportunities, skilled work force is available. Furthermore, it is easy to offer the employees and their families, of a company operating in Nivala, good housing and free time opportunities. Many nationally significant enterprises have launched their business activities from here to markets both in and outside Finland.

